

PRIVATE LAW OF SPORT

[in ETHICS AND, PRIVATE LAW OF SPORT]

Course ID: IUS/01

ECTS: 4

1st Year: 1st semester

Teacher: PROF. BELLOMIA Valentina

The course of private law of sport has as its subject the fundamental principles regulating Italian private law of sport, with particular reference to the sporting system.

The course aims at providing the students, through the examination of the relevant legislation and the most significant case law and commentaries of this matter, with knowledge of the issues inherent to the sporting system, the persons which are part of it, the contractual framework, the civil liability in relation to sport activity.

The course will particularly focus on the examination of the relevant employment contract and the principles of the civil liability applicable to the world of sport, also with reference to the civil liability of the doctor and to doping. The course also aims at providing the students with the basic principles regulating the functioning of the sporting system jurisdiction.

Below a brief syllabus of the course:

- the Italian sporting system;
- the sources of the Italian sporting system;
- persons;
- employment contract for the performance of sport activity;
- sponsorship;
- television rights;
- civil liability in relation with the performance of sport activities;
- civil liability of the doctor of sport athletes;
- doping;
- sporting system jurisdiction.